Official Memorandum.

The attention of all officers in whom powers of appointment vest is invited to G.O.No. 5771-830/CRB 5-26-1, dated 10th June 1927, according to which the best available candidate has to be selected for each vacancy. From the "B" statements furnished to the Central Recruitment Board showing the appointments made in advertised vacancies, it is seen that in some cases the best qualified applicant is not selected. The selection of a less qualified but otherwise duly eligible candidate in preference to a better qualified applicant can be justified only in cases in which the selection is made with a view to --- secure a fair representation of the members of various communities or to retain the services of a candidate who having been previously entertained has gained experience of office work in the Department or Unit. In all such cases it is requested that the special reason guiding the selection should invariably be mentioned in the "B" statement relating to the vacancy which is furnishod to the Board.

Special reasons exist such as that
